INCASA, IU MCKINNEY SCHOOL OF LAW,
AND IN DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS
ARE PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE:

Honorable William J. Hughes

Judge Hughes has graced us by accepting to again lead the Mock Trial. William J. Hughes has served as Judge of Hamilton Superior Court 3, Noblesville, Indiana since July 1, 1988. He is a graduate of University of Evansville, B.S. 1977 magna cum laude, and Indiana University School of Law at Indianapolis, J.D. 1980 magna cum laude. He serves the Indiana Judicial Conference as chair of the Judicial Education Committee and has previously served as a member of the Board of Directors, member of the Domestic Relations Committee, and Community Relation Committee, chair of the Mentor Judge Committee, and chair of the Jury Committee. Judge Hughes holds memberships in the Indiana State Bar Association; American Judicature Society; Indiana Judges Association; Indiana Bar Foundation, Fellow; and Hamilton County Bar Association.

Jennifer Lukemeyer

Ms. Lukemeyer returns as defense counsel for the defendant. Jennifer focuses her statewide practice in the area of criminal defense. She has represented persons accused of crimes in State and Federal Court. Her clients have been accused of crimes including: murder, robbery, drug dealing and possession, forgery, gun crimes, white collar crimes, drunk driving, sex offenses, domestic violence, and minor misdemeanors. Jennifer's practice also includes appellate work that has included arguing before the Indiana Supreme Court. She represents juveniles accused of crimes as well as parents at risk of having their children removed from their care. Jennifer's clients also include professionals before their respective licensing boards when their license is being threatened. She also handles post-conviction relief matters, violation of probation allegations and sentence modification requests. Her practice has included jury trials and bench trials all over the State and in Federal court.

Jennifer graduated cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from the University of South Carolina in 1991. She went on to earn her Juris Doctorate from Southern Methodist University School of Law in 1994. She then returned to her hometown to begin her career in criminal defense work. Jennifer practiced as a full time public defender for three years and then for another five years on a contractual basis. In 1997 she proudly joined her current professional association.

Judi Calhoun

Ms. Calhoun will be the prosecutor for the states case. She currently serves as a Chief Deputy Prosecutor in Delaware County under the elected Prosecutor, Jeff Arnold. She had been a Deputy Prosecutor since October 1998 where she handles all types of felonies, including murder. Prior to joining the Prosecutor's Office, Ms. Calhoun was in private practice primarily handling domestic relations cases and collections. She was admitted to the bar in June, 1994 and has always practiced in Muncie, Indiana.

Ms. Calhoun is a graduate of Purdue University and the Ohio Northern University Claude W. Pettit College of Law.

Ms. Calhoun holds memberships in the Indiana and Muncie Bar Associations. Ms. Calhoun has served on the ISBA Board of Governors as well as the Women and the Law, Membership, Nominating and the Civil Rights of Children Committees of the ISBA. Currently, she serves as the President-elect for the Indiana Bar Foundation Board. She is also a member of the Delaware County Sexual Molestation Abuse Response Team (SMART) as well as a member of the Delaware County Child Advocacy Center Advisory Board and the Multi-Disciplinary Team which oversees the Child Advocacy Center (CAC). She is also a participant with the Special Olympics Bowling program and is a Board Member for Mental Health America. Judi has also joined the Advisory Committee for the Ball State University Center for Peace and Conflict Studies.
